Besides, Yonkers, Mount Vernon, New Rochelle and other cities in New e they had met, that the York state are really a part of New me brought its softening in- York city, although not in the corporate limits. A large number of commuters also go into Connecticut. If all of these were added to the metropolis its total population would probably exceed 6,000,000.

The states likewise show gains. New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Ohio retain their relative rank as first, second, third and fourth respectively, but there is a shift in fifth most of the others. Tex and Mis-

Washington shows the greatest grown in the decade, with Oklahoma a close second. Both have more than doubled their populations. Nevada has also shown a great growth, although she remains at the foot of the list despite her gain. Others that show phenomenal growth are New Mexico, California, Colorado, Florida, Oregon, the two Dakotas and Washington. The average increase the country over is approximately 20 per cent. A comparison shows that the great industrial states are well over this figure, while the agricultural states usually fall behind.

The most phenomenal growth in the entire nation, outside of one or two of the recently admitted commonwealths, is on the Pacific coast. The south averages well and has kept abreast of the entire country. The states withincluding some golf the ones that suffer most. Yet a close analysis shows that the loss here has not been so much in the rural districts themselves as in the small villages and Padding Causes Recounts.

Several western cities were accused of padding, and recounts were ordered. The most conspicuous cases were those of Seattle, Tacoma and one other city in Washington. Portland, Ore.; Fort Smith, Ark., and some others were also involved. Reductions were made by the recounts, and a few enumerators were arrested. The reverse process occurred in Atlantic City, N. J. There the mayor complained that the showing was too small, and a recount showed a slight increase.

Taking the country as a whole, we are a rather large proposition. One prophet looks ahead 250 years and says we shall then have one-half the people on the globe, a trifle under 2,000,000,000, to be prophetically exactevidently a case of census figures on the brain. But without boasting we a place worth for the year or are a mighty people, not only when from Samoon "History of counted by the head, but when measured by other standards-for example, the power to do things.
